If the liabilities to be set off are expressed in different currencies, Metalcraft may convert either liability at a market rate of exchange for the purpose of set-off. Any exercise by Metalcraft of its rights under this clause shall not limit or affect any other rights or remedies available to it under the Contract or otherwise.

 - (c) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, or ceases or threatens to cease to carry on all or a substantial part of its business; or

- 12.1 On termination of the Contract for any reason or expiry, the Supplier shall immediately deliver to Metalcraft all Deliverables whether or not then complete, and return all Metalcraft Materials. If the Supplier fails to do so, then Metalcraft may enter the Supplier's premises and take possession of them. Until they have been returned or delivered, the Supplier shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping and will not use them for any purpose not connected with the Contract.
- 12.2 Termination or expiry of the Contract shall not affect any of the rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.
- 12.3 Any provision of the Contract that expressly or by implication is intended to come into or continue in force on or after termination or expiry of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.
13. Force majeure
- 13.1 Provided it has complied with clause 13.3, if a party is prevented, hindered or delayed in or from performing any of its obligations under the Contract by a Force Majeure Event (Affected Party), the Affected Party shall not be in breach of the Contract or otherwise liable for any such failure or delay in the performance of such obligations. The time for performance of such obligations shall be extended accordingly.
- 13.2 The corresponding obligations of the other party will be suspended, and its time for performance of such obligations extended, to the same extent as those of the Affected Party.

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the start of the Force Majeure Event, but no later than 7 days from its start, notify the other party in writing of the Force Majeure Event, the date on which it started, its likely or potential duration, and the effect of the Force Majeure Event on its ability to perform any of its obligations under the Contract; and
 - (b) use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations.
- 13.4 If the Force Majeure Event prevents, hinders or delays the Affected Party's performance of its obligations for a continuous period of more than 2 weeks, the party not affected by the Force Majeure Event may terminate the Contract by giving 1 week's written notice to the Affected Party.
